The Empty Seat:

Gary and Gail Verbridge passed away within 11 days of each other in January, 2021. We met Gary at one of Gail's banjo activities and we took him for a ride in our '31 Model 42. He liked it so well that he joined the PAS and bought three Pierce-Arrows, a '29, a '30 and a '31. The Verbridges used to come to the GAG's when their daughter lived in Michigan. They owned very extensive apple orchards in Williamson, NY. Gary was 85, Gail was 84 and they were married for 65 years.

Following the Arrow:

by Jane Barclay, GLR Regional Director

Hello Great Lakes Members,

We hope that all of you remain healthy and well during this continued Covid-19 pandemic. The 2021 Spring Fling has been cancelled as museums and restaurants are not taking reservations yet for March or April of 2021. It is my hope that perhaps we can gather in Ann Arbor, MI for an enjoyable Spring Fling in 2022.

Mark your calendars:

PAS 63rd National Meet in Hershey, PA, June 8-12, 2021

<https://www.pierce-arrow.org/hershey-2021/>

18th Annual Gathering at Gilmore, August 27-29, 2021

<https://www.pierce-arrow.org/gathering-at-gilmore-2021/>

The PAS Board Election has been finalized. We had an encouraging sign for the future of PAS with candidate, Sean McNew winning a seat on the PAS National Board. He is a younger member and we wish him well in his time on the PAS National Board. We also are happy to note that Dave Stevens, Stu Blair and I have all retained our seats on the Board as well.

May you all stay healthy and safe during these trying times. Again, we hope to see you all in Hershey, PA this June 2021.

My Best,

Jane Mann Barclay
GLR Director
