Glens Falls

NEW YORK

65th Annual

with us in Glens Falls - Home Town USA! The town was given that moniker decided to do a photographic display of a quintessential small American town spirit. Glens Falls also serves as the gateway city to the Adirondack Park.

ME 22

First, we will tour to the Saratoga National Battlefield. The Battle of Saratoga was the turning point of the American Revolutionary War. You will see Victory Woods where British General Burgoyne's army, numbering 11,000 men, surrendered in 1777. This is hallowed ground of our American heritage. Enjoy the experience. Then we will head to Glens Falls to get ready to board the buses for the weekend. We will have a rest since parking at Lake George in the fall can be a bit of a challenge!

On Friday, we will have a two-and-a-half hour presentation complete with live entertainment. You'll witness the sunset as you enjoy a scrumptious buffet in a room. A separate area will be set aside for Pierce-

Saratoga Springs. This calls for a stop at the National Hall of Fame. Even if you are not a fan of horse racing, you will not love this museum. You see the silks worn by the winners of famous races in progress. The highlight is the film called What it Takes: Journey to the Hall of Fame. There are also videos with Hall of Fame jockeys and trainers. It shows how trainers identify those special potential winners and the best bloodlines. One comes away with a great admiration for the trainers, the jockeys and in particular the beautiful horses that comprise the Saratoga National Hall of Fame. A definite don't miss!

Lunch will be a fun gathering at Mama Mia's in downtown Saratoga Springs for an authentic Italian meal. After enjoying the food, you will head on to the Saratoga Auto Museum. The museum houses thirty vehicles in three galleries. There may be a really big surprise display in June – fingers crossed!

Friday night concludes with the Flea Market and Ladies' Vintage Attic.

SATURDAY ~ JUNE 24

It is time for the car show. And quite luckily it is in a beautiful park directly across from the Queensbury. There will be music in the gazebo and readily available lunch and drinks to purchase.

Following the show, will be the Ladies' Tea and Vintage Hat show as well as the Technical Session.

Saturday concludes with the traditional banquet and awards. The setting for our banquet is a newly expanded Adirondack Ballroom opened in the summer of 2022. As with all other function rooms in the hotel, it has retained the historic charm of the original hotel.

...then it is time to say goodbye and look ahead to Michigan in 2024.

About Glens Falls, New York...

In front of important military battles, the Quakers referred to this town as Fort William Henry and Revolutionary wars. The town was founded by Quaker founder, Abraham Johannes Glen in 1788, Amazingly, Glens Falls has been destroyed by fire at least five times in its history: twice during the American Revolution and again in 1864, 1884, and 1902. Luckily, the buildings standing today are incredibly preserved, giving the modern city a uniquely historic charm.

There's plenty to do in Glens Falls! Visit the many restaurants, shops and museums. Enjoy a show or musical at the renowned Charles R. Wood Theater, or visit the weekend Farmer's Market and the kids will love Six Flag's "Great Escape" just 5 miles from the Queensbury, Log Jam Restaurant and Martha's Dande Ice Cream ~ You'll fall in love with Hometown USA!

THE QUEENSBURY

You will be staying at the Queensbury hotel in downtown Glens Falls. This is a historic hotel that opened in 1926.

Though recently remodeled, the hotel maintains its Colonial Revival architecture throughout. There are great gathering places for Pierce-Arrow guests including an upscale Fenimore's Pub. The hotel became a member of Historic Hotels of America in 2017.
